

Network protocol

ITASPA: Clinical and Genetic Analysis of Spastic Paraplegias

Spastic paraplegias (SP) are genetically and clinically very heterogeneous. More than 40 loci are already known, but the number of phenotypes is even greater suggesting further genetic heterogeneity. The ITASPA is an Italian network on spastic paraplegias (SP). It combines the experience of Italian clinicians and scientists working on these groups of diseases